

Recommencement of Pharmacy Retroactive Claim Adjustments: Status Update

December 8, 2022

On October 31, 2022, Medi-Cal Rx published an alert titled Recommencement of Pharmacy Retroactive Claim Adjustments in November 2022. The alert notified pharmacies of the planned resumption of retroactive adjustments in November 2022, with recoupments set to begin in January 2023.

The purpose of this alert is to notify pharmacies of a delay in the planned resumption of retroactive adjustments and recoupment activity. The Department of Health Care Services (DHCS) will publish further updates as specific dates for resumption and recoupment are identified. Additionally, DHCS will update the current Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) document to reflect changes in the timeline and scope of this effort. Contact Information for detailed questions will be provided in the FAQ updates.
